The Contract.

1.1 These Terms of Business, conditions & fees which are non-negotiable constitute the contract between the Agency & the Client for the supply of staff to be engaged directly by the Client & are deemed to be accepted by the Client by virtue of an introduction or the engagement of a Candidate, or the passing by the Client of any information about a Candidate to any third party following an introduction.

1.2 The Agency acts as an Introduction Agency (as defined in section 13(2) of the Employment Agencies Act 1973) when introducing Candidates to the Client for direct engagement by that Client

1.3 These Terms & Conditions of Business shall be governed by the laws of England & Wales.

1.4 The Agency reserves the right to change these Terms of Business without prior notification.

1.5 These terms contain the entire agreement between the parties & unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Agency, these terms take precedence & shall prevail over any other Terms of Business or conditions put forward by the Client.

1.6 No variation or alteration to these terms shall be valid unless the details of such variation are agreed between the Agency & the Client & are set out in writing & a copy of the varied terms is given to the Client stating the date on which they shall apply.

2 Information to be provided by the Client

2.1 For the selection of suitable candidates for interview by the Client, then the Client is required to provide the Agency with the identity of the Hirer and an accurate detailed job specification. This must include but is not limited to: Hours on duty, days on duty, the ages of the children the Candidate is to be appointed to care for & any special needs that these children may have. The location of where the candidate shall work, start dates, proposed salary & any other information that may be important to the Agency that may influence the Agencies selection of candidates deemed appropriate.

The Agency will refer to the Candidates expected weekly wages in net GBP terms only, making it the Clients responsibility to cover any payments that they will be required to make on behalf of the candidate (tax social security etc.) Clients are responsible for the candidates return flights, work permits and medical insurance and other insurance that may be required for the candidate to perform their duties properly. It is the Client's responsibility to determine the final cost of employing any proposed candidate.

3. Introduction of Candidates:

3.1 The Agency shall only introduce candidates that they have interviewed. The Interview of candidates involves but is not limited to understanding candidate's previous employment experiences. Their preferences & requirements from future employers & their suitability to work with their preferred age group. The Agency will have also obtained a minimum of two references from referee's who confirm the candidate's suitability to work with Children. Whilst every care is taken to pre-screen & select candidates deemed suitable for the position of working with children, the screening & decision on the suitability of the candidate is the sole responsibility of the Client.

3.2 Clients must take up references (permission to do so is to be obtained from the candidate) & medical histories of a Candidate they wish to employ to their own satisfaction, as after the offer of employment has been accepted & concluded the Agency will not be held responsible for any loss, damage, delay, clash of personalities or for any other circumstances that may arise beyond its control. The Agency will not be held responsible nor get involved with any dispute which should be resolved between employer (Client) & employee (Candidate) that may result in any loss, damage, delay or termination of the engagement.

3.3 Clients engaging candidates in excess of 12 weeks should sign a contract with the intended employee confirming the engagement. This should include, but not be limited to: Location of work, a job specification, and duties expected, salary, working hours & free time agreed, probation & notice periods. This is an independent contract between employer (Client) & employee (Candidate).

3.4 The Agency does not employ the Candidates introduced and any Contracts of Employment entered into is between the Client and the Candidate. The Client is responsible for complying with all employment, taxation, fiscal and other relevant legislation in addition to the civil and criminal laws of the Country within which the candidate is to be employed.

The Agency is not responsible for any non-compliance of the Client or the Candidate.

3.5 The Client shall be responsible for the candidates mobilization & demobilization costs, obtaining work & any other permits, medical examinations &/or investigations into the medical history of Candidates, & qualifications required by law of the country in which the candidate is to be engaged to work or travel as part of the job.

3.6 Clients requiring the employee (Candidate) to drive whilst performing their duties, must ensure that the candidate holds a current driver's license & cover related costs associated with any insurance's.

3.7 Clients requiring the employee (Candidate) to travel whilst performing their duties, must cover related costs & ensure that the candidate is properly insured (medical)

3.8 Kensington Nannies are not responsible for any interview expenses incurred by the Client or Candidate.

4. Notification: To the Agency:

4.1 The Client agrees to notify the Agency immediately of the terms of any offer of an engagement be it verbal or written which they make to the Candidate

4.2 Notify the Agency immediately that the Clients offer of an engagement be it verbal or written to the Candidate has been accepted & to provide details to the Agency of the terms agreed (see 3.3) with the Candidate together with any documentary evidence as requested by the Agency.

5. Introduction Fees for Engagements intended to exceed 12 weeks:

5.1 The fees are fixed and non-negotiable Kensington Nannies charges a flat rate Introduction Fee of £7000 +VAT (where applicable) of a client having an offer (be it verbal or Written) on an Engagement that is intended to exceed 12 weeks accepted. Note that the fee is not related to the salary offered & accepted, or the status of the independent Employer Employee contract.

5.2 Trials: Clients who request to trial a Candidate prior to making a firm offer may do so for two days without incurring an agency fee, any further days will be charged at the Temporary Engagement rate in accordance with clause 9 below. The client must note that they are responsible for all Candidate related costs including, but not limited to the candidates transport costs & any agreed remuneration due & payable directly to the Candidate throughout the entire trial. During the trial the Candidate & the Client may continue to interview with other parties. The Temporary Engagement Introduction fee charged for any Candidate trial is applicable to one engagement. A further fee will be charged for any re-engagement at any time.

5.3 VAT is charged at the standard prevailing rate on all fees where applicable.

6. Terms of Payment of Introduction Fees for Engagements intended to exceed 12 weeks (Note: The Terms of payment & applicable Introduction fee, shall not be contingent upon suitability checks of the candidate see clause 3.2 & 14 or the status of the Employee /Employer contract be it written of verbal.)

6.1 Once the Client has had an offer of employment accepted be it verbal or written by a candidate & the Agency notified in accordance with clause. 4.1 And / or 4.2 the full Introduction fee becomes payable within 48 hours of Date of Invoice or 14 days prior to the Engagement commencement date whichever occurs first.

6.2 Where the proposed /estimated commencement date is more than 14 days in advance the following payment terms shall apply:

Once the Client has had an offer of employment accepted, be it verbal or written by a Candidate & the Agency notified in accordance with clause. 4.1 And or 4.2 then 20% of the Introduction fee becomes due & payable within 48 hours of the date of the invoice in order to secure the Candidate.

Until such time that this 20% fee payment is received by the Agency, the Candidate may continue to interview with other prospective Clients.

The balance of 80% of the Introduction fee shall become due & payable within 48 hours of Date of Invoice or 14 (fourteen) days prior to the proposed/estimated date of commencement of the engagement whichever occurs first.

6.3 The Candidate will only commence the engagement with the Client once the entire Introduction Fee due has been received by the Agency. Invoices not settled in line with the payment terms may delay the Candidates start date.

In the event of the invoice for the Introduction Fee not being fully settled in accordance with either clauses 6.1 and/or 6.2 the Client forfeits the option of a pro rata refund or replacement (see clause 7) and a late payment surcharge of 15% of the invoice value will be added to any Introduction Fee outstanding,

6.4 Should the Candidate choose not to start the engagement through no fault of the Client, then the entire amount of the Introduction fee paid by the Client will be refunded.

6.5 The Introduction Fee is payable if the Client engages the Candidate within a period of 12 months from the date of:

- (a) Interview,
- (b) The Clients withdrawal of an offer of engagement, or
- (c) The Candidates rejection of an offer of engagement (whichever is the later).

6.6 Agency fee payments are to be made by bank transfers.

7. Refund & Replacement Policy on placements intended to exceed 12 weeks:

Clients are not eligible to claim a refund/pro rata refund or replacement candidate after the 12 week period (from commencement date) of the engagement has expired, nor is the client eligible to claim a refund/pro rata refund or replacement on a "replacement" candidate and or a candidate who is engaged temporarily.

7.1 Once the candidate has commenced their employ/ the engagement, in the unlikely event of the Engagement not being successful & resulting in the Engagement being lawfully terminated by the Client or Candidate within 12 weeks of the date of commencement of the Engagement (inclusive of notice being served), then at the discretion of the Agency, & assuming all terms of this contract have been met, the Client qualifies for either one free replacement candidate, on a like for like basis to fulfil the original job specification the Client registered with the Agency, or a pro rata refund (clause 7.8 & clause 7.9).

7.2 The refund or replacement are only payable/applicable if the Agency has received payment in accordance with clause 6.1 and/or 6.2 & the Agency has been informed of the termination of employment within 48 hours of the said termination

7.3 Should the position & duties not comply with the Contract/Terms of employment agreed between the Candidate & Client or with the job specification registered with the Agency, or as a result of the act or omission of the client if such act or omission is fraudulent or negligent then there shall be no recourse to any refund or free replacement candidate.

7.4 If the Candidate chooses to terminate their employment as a result of the client's failure to comply with the independent contract agreed between the Client & Candidate, then the Client forfeits their options of any refund or replacement candidate. If the Candidate chooses to terminate their employment as a result of inappropriate and/ or unreasonable behaviour, actions, demands & the like experienced by the Candidate in the workplace, & that these are deemed inappropriate and /or unreasonable by the Agency, then the Client forfeits their options of any refund or replacement Candidate.

7.5 Clients continuing to employ a Candidate will be liable for the appropriate charge even if they claim the employees work is unsatisfactory. In cases where the employment contract/ engagement has been terminated yet the Candidate is allowed to remain in the household on a paid or unpaid basis, the appropriate charge will be raised.

7.6 When it is established that the Client is eligible & has qualified to request a replacement Candidate then The Agency must be given exclusivity and up to 8 weeks from the date of the Clients notification to the Agency that the Candidate has left the Clients employ (after any notice period has been worked) to undertake sourcing a replacement candidate deemed suitable by the Agency to fill the original job specification submitted by the Client at the time of registration. Throughout this period the Client agrees to make themselves available to interview said Candidates. If a client is unable to interview replacements and relies on the agency to select a replacement, yet reject those deemed suitable by the agency the client will forfeit their option to a refund or replacement. Should the Client source a candidate by other means during this time the client will not be eligible for a refund/pro rata refund or a replacement candidate.

7.7 Clients who request to trial a Candidate prior to making a firm offer may do so for two days without incurring an Agency fee. Any further trial days will result in the Client forfeiting 1/12th of the 12 week replacement period for each week or part of a week that the candidate is engaged to trial. The Client must note that they are responsible for all Candidate related costs including, but not limited to the candidates transport costs & any agreed remuneration due & payable directly to the Candidate throughout the entire trial. During the trial the Candidate & the Client may continue to interview with other parties.

7.8 If it proves impossible for the Agency to introduce a replacement within the timeframe listed in clause 7.6 and The Client has met the Terms & Conditions contained within this contract to qualify, the Client will be eligible for a refund in accordance with this clause 7.9 once the time frame listed in 7.6 has expired.

7.9 Refunds: When it is established that the Client has met the Terms & Conditions contained within this contract to be eligible & qualify for a refund, should the Agency not offer a replacement candidate, a charge of 1/12th of the fee will apply for each week any candidate introduced by the Agency has been engaged/employed and /or has remained in the household on a paid or unpaid basis, (inclusive of trials as mentioned in clause 7.7) A further 20% penalty charge shall be levied on the remaining balance. Once all deductions have been made, the appropriate refund due to the client, shall then be made by Bank transfer to the client.

7.10 If subsequent to the Client receiving a refund the Candidate is re-engaged, then the refund shall be repaid to the Agency.
